*Call to Worship
L: For all of the saints who have built us up, been present in our lives, and loved us...
P: We give thanks to you, O God! You have given life.
L: For the air we breathe and the food that sustains us. For this moment—a chance to sing your praises, to remember, and to look forward...
P: We give thanks to you, O God. You have given life.
L: For the people you place in our path, who need our help...
All: We give thanks to you, O God. You have given life, and empowered us to be the saints the world needs.

Opening Prayer
Lord of life, death, and resurrection: today we remember the saints who have gone before us. We remember the stories of faith shared in the Bible. We remember the apostles, like Paul and Barnabas, who gave their lives to spread your gospel. We remember the countless saints who have carried the faith from generation to generation. We remember the saints who have personally built us up: Sunday School teachers, mentors, and encouragers. We celebrate the faith of those who are no longer with us, but have passed into your loving arms. Empower us with courageous love to give to the next generation. Amen.

For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
